REASONS FOR THE DECISION

The Agfest West Coast event has been held previously and organisers have a clear understanding and signed measures in place from stallholders in relation to their responsibilities at their sites.

Agfest have approved Auld Distillery to hold a special licence at this event.

Agfest has security on site for the event and there are also a number of food vendors attending.

The applicant has listed three certified duty managers, Robert Auld and Toni Auld, who are experienced managers including running tasting events, and Linda Jones.

The Inspector's report indicates that the amenity and good order of the locality will not be adversely affected by more than a minor extent and that the applicant is suitable to hold this licence. He does not oppose this application.

The Police and the Medical Officer of Health raise no matters in opposition.

The application was not required to be publicly notified and no opposition or notice of desire to be heard has been received.

Accordingly, I deal with the matter on the papers.

I am satisfied as to the matters to which we must have regard as set out in s.142 of the Act.

Section 149(2) notes if a special licence issued is postponed to some other day, the licence is in force on the day on which the event or part takes place.
