MINUTE NO. 12 - UPDATING PROCEDURAL MINUTE

Dated 27 March 2024

- 1 The Chair became symptomatic with COVID-19 on 23 March 2024 for the first time and remains symptomatic but is recovering well. The parties are advised of this because a full consideration of papers recently filed has not been possible by the entire Panel, which has informed, in part, the choices below.
- 2 The Panel has received from TiGA the following:
 - (a) Closing legal submissions;
 - (b) Final offered conditions set.
- 3 The Panel conferred by Zoom on 27 March 2024 in the afternoon and agreed that the material filed in reply did not raise questions of a degree or nature that would justify a hearing. Therefore, the scheduled resumed hearing date on 28 March 2024 to address reply papers is vacated.
- 4 The hearing is closed to further communication from all parties. The Panel may raise particular matters arising from the reply papers by emailing questions to the Applicant before 3 April 2024. Any communications will be posted on the hearing website.
- 5 The Panel will commence formulating its decision on 3 April 2024, with the aim, if feasible, of issuing a written decision informed by ongoing deliberations within 15 working days of that date, i.e., by 23 April 2024.
- 6 The hearing has been an intricate and complex process, and the Panel thanks all parties for their responsible and thought-provoking participation. We wish you a restful Easter break.

Ngā Mihi,

John Maassen
Commissioner (Chairperson)
