Note to submitter

If you are making a submission to the Environmental Protection Authority, you should use form 16B.

The closing date for serving submissions on the consent authority is the 20th working day after the date on which public or limited notification is given. If the application is subject to limited notification, the consent authority may adopt an earlier closing date for submissions once the consent authority receives responses from all affected persons.

You must serve a copy of your submission on the applicant as soon as is reasonably practicable after you have served your submission on the consent authority.

If you are a trade competitor, your right to make a submission may be limited by the trade competition provisions in Part 11A of the Resource Management Act 1991.

If you make a request under section 100A of the Resource Management Act 1991, you must do so in writing no later than 5 working days after the close of submissions and you may be liable to meet or contribute to the costs of the hearings commissioner or commissioners. You may not make a request under section 100A of the Resource Management Act 1991 in relation to an application for a coastal permit to carry out an activity that a regional coastal plan describes as a restricted coastal activity.

Please note that your submission (or part of your submission) may be struck out if the authority is satisfied that at least 1 of the following applies to the submission (or part of the submission):

- it is frivolous or vexatious;
- it discloses no reasonable or relevant case;
- it would be an abuse of the hearing process to allow the submission (or the part) to be taken further;
- it contains offensive language;
- it is supported only by material that purports to be independent expert evidence, but has been prepared by a person who is not independent or who does not have sufficient specialised knowledge or skill to give expert advice on the matter.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

Additionally, it is noted that regular audits are essential to identify any discrepancies or errors early on. This proactive approach helps in maintaining the integrity of the financial statements and prevents any potential issues from escalating.

The following section outlines the specific procedures for handling incoming payments and outgoing expenses. It provides a clear step-by-step guide to ensure consistency across all departments.

For incoming payments, the process begins with the receipt of funds from customers or clients. The amount received should be immediately recorded in the accounting system, and a corresponding receipt should be issued to the payer.

Outgoing expenses are handled by requiring all employees to submit a detailed expense report. This report should include the date, purpose, and amount of each expenditure. Once approved, the expense is recorded in the system, and the necessary payment is processed.

It is also important to note that all transactions must be recorded in the appropriate accounting period to ensure accurate financial reporting. This includes recognizing revenue when it is earned and expenses when they are incurred.

Finally, the document concludes by stating that adherence to these procedures is crucial for the overall success of the organization. It encourages all staff members to take their responsibilities seriously and maintain the highest standards of accuracy and honesty.
